

Block 3-4 Soc Source

FEATURED FILM POLICE ON TRIAL

CC Alumni and Visiting Prof in Block 7, Mike Shum's film Police on Trial is available to watch on Amazon Prime. It is a documentary drawing on the unique on-the-ground reporting and filming, from the earliest days after George Floyd's death, to documenting the trial and murder conviction of former police officer Derek Chauvin, to ongoing struggles for police accountability and reform in Minneapolis. Put this one on your watch list!

MIKE SHUM '07

FEATURED BOOK SABRINA & CORINA: STORIES

The Antiracist Book Club, sponsored by the CC ADEI leadership team, is reading Kali Fajardo-Anstine's magnetic story collection in Block 4. You can register for a free copy of the book on the CC ADEI Antiracism Book Club web page. Comprised of short stories, the book talks about how Latina women of indigenous ancestry navigate the land the way they navigate their lives: with caution, grace, and quiet force.

Join the Book Club to stay updated with current selection of books.

KALI FAJARDO-ANSTINE

FACULTY SEARCH IN PROGRESS

The Sociology Department is looking to hire a new tenure track faculty member who will start in the 2023-24 school year. We plan to bring in candidates for lunchtime job talks in Block 4. Student participation is an important part of the hiring process, and a way for you to help shape our department for years to come. Please watch for specifics as they become available!

VOTING RESOURCES

If you are eligible to vote and registered in Colorado, you should have already received your ballot in the mail! Regardless of whether you are voting in Colorado or absentee from your home state, here is a great resource for election information nationally:

vote411.org

CALENDAR OF EVENTS

NOV 2
(CH2)

QUALITATIVE METHODS READING GROUP

12:15 PM - 1:15 PM

Join faculty and students for an informal book discussion of Chapter 2, Heterogeneity from "Qualitative Literacy" to strengthen your understanding of the principles of qualitative methods. The book is available in the Soc department to borrow! Lunch will be provided. RSVP to Lisa with dietary requirements.

NOV 5

"SATURDAYS ARE FOR DU BOIS" TIE-DYE EVENT!

1:00 - 4:00 PM

Sponsored by the Student Advisory Board!
Come tie-dye "Saturdays are for Du Bois" t-shirts and yassify your wardrobe at Yampa Field!

What is the Student Advisory Board (SAB):

The SAB is responsible for planning events, contributing to the SocSource, and acting as the sociology student voice.