 - Deksyos: Over the summer they are trying to limit activities over the summer that aren't strictly necessary
 - Deksyos: Also a lot of conversations about the COVID variants and I think we will have to back the school's decisions. I was thinking the new full council could hold some meetings over the summer to get a start
 - Just making sure we aren't losing steam on things we started
- V. Election commission:
 - Fer, Ade, Jane, Tom, Sakina, Deksyos, Misbah, Lilly, Tia
 - Vote passes unanimously
- VI. Presentation of the Future Plans for Worner by Amy:
 - Basements:
 - Mailroom becomes the food pantry/swap space and could be home to book exchange. We could do a lot there. No renovation needed. Collab by student activities and sustainability
 - Mailbox area— would become a creative space you could book— Arts and crafts, etc
 - Bookstore: its fire capacity is pretty small — there will be no walls built in this space. I think a stage, table tennis, pool tables, etc. Could be a chill and flexible area. But also tables and whiteboards so clubs could book the space as well
 - Student organizations would have priority of the space
 - Book store office — similar to CCSGA office— study space meeting room
 - Other storage for CCSGA, student life
 - Wall in the back was a bookable mural wall that clubs could book
 - We want all these spaces to be flexible
 - First floor:
 - Coburn returning to arts and crafts
 - 2nd floor furniture moved down to first floor because it's prettier

- Second floor:
 - WRC— flex student life/event space that would give priority to multicultural organizations. If not booked, it could be booked by other groups
 - Spaces that are offices would become small group study spaces
 - Looking to turn some rooms into prayer and mediation rooms

VII. Open floor:

- Amy: Dance workshop is outdoors, link will be sent out for that soon. We are doing a leave-a-letter campaign--you can take the opportunity to drop that letter or send a faculty.
- Sophie: I am going to send you an invite for the statewide colorado student government coalition. You are welcome to come!

VIII. Adjournment
